Parental Consent Form for Opportunity Funds Program Participants 2023

All students participating in USEF-Nepal's Opportunity Funds (OF) Program 2023 are required to obtain written parental consent to proceed with the program.

Ensure that both parents complete the relevant portions of this form. If one parent is deceased, then ensure the other parent fills only the relevant section. If both parents are deceased, legal guardian consent is required. Attach SIGNED copies of citizenship certificates (i.e. with FRESH signature anywhere on the photocopy) belonging to ALL individual/s who have completed the form, including parents and student. Ensure that both the citizenship photocopy AND this form are signed by the individual/s. Form may be completed in either English or Nepali, except for date which must be in English. Scanned and printed forms will only be accepted from students who have parents/ legal guardians who currently reside outside of Kathmandu Valley.

Due date: Return completed form (white copy) with attached citizenship certificate/s to USEF during our nextgroup meeting on Thursday, June 30, 2022. Keep the pink copy for your reference.
